18th March 1959]

(The hon. Member Sri K. Vinayakam was heard to say, 'It is easy to snub a man'.)

MR. SPEAKER : Again I am warning that if the hon. Member persists, I will take appropriate action.

Reorganization of Government departments

* 861 Q.—SRI V. K. KOTHANDARAMAN (on behalf of SRI M. KALYANASUNDARAM) : Will the Hon. the Chief Minister be pleased to state—

(a) when the report was submitted by the Special Officer deputed to examine the question of reorganization of Government departments;

(b) whether action has been taken on the proposals made in the report; and

(c) whether a copy of the report will be placed on the Table of the House, together with the decisions of the Government on the proposals?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : (a) July 1958.

(b) The recommendations relate to various Departments of Government and they are being examined and orders issued as and when decisions are reached in each case.

(c) Copies of the Report have already been placed in the Legislature Library for the information of the Hon. Members. As it will take sometime for orders to be passed on all the recommendations, it will not be possible at this stage to place on the table of the House the decisions of the Government on the proposals.

Students of the Annamalai University

* 862 Q.—SRI M. JAGANNATHAN : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state—

(a) whether a Committee has been constituted by the Government to examine the disturbed conditions among the students of the Annamalai University;

(b) if so, whether that Committee has made any report in the matter; and

(c) whether any of its recommendations have been implemented so far?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : (a) No, Sir.

(b) & (c) Do not arise.

SRI M. JAGANNATHAN : Sir, I understand that the Education Committee appointed by the Congress Parliamentary Party in New Delhi has recommended the appointment of a military officer in every University to maintain discipline among the students. Will the Government consider the desirability of taking
